COCKTAILS

AED

PIMM'S ICED TEA

Pimm's No. 1, a gin-based aperitif invented by London bar owner James Pimm in 1823, is the quintessential English summer-afternoon drink (and the traditional drink of Wimbledon). Here, we combine it with tea, another beloved British beverage

MR. STAIR

This savory pear sour honors an English schoolmaster who reputedly discovered the Williams pear around 1765

KYOTO N.2

England's tonic water has a refreshing astringency that makes it our choice for this tangy, mint-infused drink

SWEET AND SOUR MARTINI

Sweet and Sour Martini is for people who like to have a heavenly mix of sweet and sour cocktails.

RASPBERRY AND LAVENDER GIN FIZZ

Herb-infused cocktails are a great way to end the day and this raspberry and lavender gin fizz cocktail is no doubt a great choice

DUBONNET COCKTAIL

Queen Elizabeth II's favorite cocktail. A harmonious blend of Dubonnet Rouge's mildly sweet flavor and bold gin. It is an excellent wine-based aperitif cocktail.
