The Long Breakfast

1 January

A New Year's resolution is something that comes in one year and out the other.
Happy 2022!

Celebrated till the wee hours of the morning? The festivities last night may have left you sluggish and spent. So feel free to enjoy a leisurely lie-in before gathering your family and friends for good food, good times and good recovery.

When yesterday was all about fireworks and dancing, today it is fresh juices, eggs and pancakes that you need.

Start the year off right with a long lazy breakfast at Brunello Restaurant. Tuck into our selection of hearty and healthy fare to soak up the bubbles from the night before whilst enjoying magnificent views of our gardens.

Palm trees, sea breeze, creamy cheese and orange squeeze...all the way to 14:00 on this day only.

Breakfast is served between 7:00 and 14:00 on Saturday, 1 January 2022.

AED 155 per adult inclusive of full international breakfast spread
AED 80 for children ages 6-11 years

Orthodox Christmas Eve

6 January

May the magic of Christmas never end!

Throughout this season there has been merry-making and feasting galore. The festive time has come but is not yet gone!

As we wrap up this yuletide, we invite you to gather once more to share with us the joys of Orthodox Christmas. Set in the elegant Brunello Restaurant, we proudly present a sumptuous dinner experience craftily designed to impress and finish these celebrations off on a high note.

For one more occasion, there will be decorations, music, Christmas trees, that jolly atmosphere and so much more...

Dinner is served between 19:00 and 23:00 on Thursday, 6 January 2022.

AED 350 per person including dinner and unlimited soft beverages

AED 550 per person including dinner and unlimited house wines, spirits and beers

AED 175 for children ages 6-11 years
