TRADITIONAL COFFEE SELECTION - TASTE OF EUROPE

“From Southwestern Europe to Southern Europe”

THE MAZAGRAN - PORTUGAL

Combining cold brew coffee and lemonade might sound peculiar, but it is in fact delicious. Especially if you are sitting close by the seaside feeling the ocean breeze on your skin and the sun on your face, delicious mazagran in hand

35

BON BON - SPAIN

Bon Bon will whisk you away to memories of the cafés in Spain. The bon bon is a Spanish-style café drink that layers espresso - double espresso over dulce de leche

35

CAFÉ CRÈME - FRANCE

Within the South of France, a café crème is an espresso coffee with double the amount of water and a little fresh cream. Why not become a French for a while?

35

KAFFE-CRÈME - SWITZERLAND

Add some fresh cream to that perfectly brewed espresso, and...voila! You have what might easily be the most popular form of coffee in the country

35

AFFOGATO - ITALY

The Affogato is a classic Italian preparation pairing espresso and gelato. In Italian “affogato” means drowned, a reference to the fact that coffee is poured over scoop of a gelato, drowning it

35

THE EINSPÄNNER - AUSTRIA

The Einspänner is a double espresso topped with whipped cream. The whipped cream topping serves as an insulating layer so that you can have extra time to enjoy your espresso before it cools

35

FILTERED COFFEE - GERMANY

Most Germans have drip-filtered coffee instead of espresso, and they tend to have it black. A simple drink to help them wake up

EMBARK ON AN IMMERSIVE CULINARY JOURNEY

Inspired by the great conqueror Julius Caesar, this afternoon tea explores the exotic ingredients uncovered on his odyssey across Europe, Asia, North Africa and the Middle East.

Paying homage to his conquest through perilous seas and uncharted lands, our menu incorporates the tantalising flavour profiles of sweet Turkish figs, rich North African cacao, Amalfi Coast citrus and smokey North African spices.

Today, we honour Caesar's victorious spirit with an unforgettable sensory feast.

YOUR VOYAGE AWAITS.
