CANYONS

On the expedition, pump-up your adrenaline: drive UTVs, swim in natural pools, hike along San Dionisio's river and indulge in an exquisite riverside lunch. Santiago was once one of the most important sugar cane producing towns in the region and site of an unexpected desert oasis teeming with life. Fox Valley connects the Sierra de la Laguna mountains with the desert and its river base is home to one of the most beautiful waterfalls in the region, Sol de Mayo, at 12 meters tall.

Duration: 8 Hours

Price: $900 USD per person, minimum of 2 people

Includes: One UTV, private transportation, private guide, Sierra de la Laguna National Park entrance fees, beverages, light refreshments and lunch.

TODOS SANTOS

Explore Todos Santos, a small “pueblo magico” that evolved from a missionary outpost to become a haven for international artists. Meander through enchanting galleries set amongst colorful colonial buildings. Guests savor exquisite traditional refreshments while meeting some of Todos Santos’ most renowned artists, including Arturo Mendoza, Gabo and Maximiliano de Uranga. The itinerary continues with a delicious lunch at Hierbabuena, a delightful Baja-inspired culinary experience.

Duration: 8 Hours

Price: $900 USD per person, minimum of 2 people

Includes: Private transportation, private guide, beverages, light refreshments and lunch.

SURFING

Experience the art of surfing at some of the most renowned and diverse surf spots in Los Cabos with a pro-surfer guide. This excursion is offered year-round due to the fact that the southern tip of the Baja Peninsula is blessed with a wide diversity of surf breaks for every season.

COSTA AZUL

Duration: 3 Hours

Price: $360 USD per person,
minimum of 2 people

CERRITOS & CABO DEL ESTE

Duration: 5 Hours

Price: $395 USD per person,
minimum of 2 people

Includes: Two pro-surfer guides, private transportation, surfing equipment, beverages and light refreshments. Excursion is swell dependent.

CABO PULMO

Discover Cabo Pulmo, a hidden jewel in the Sea of Cortez that offers world class snorkeling and diving. It is estimated that this coral reef is over 20,000 years old and it is one of the only three remaining in North America. The pristine reef is home to dozens of fish, crustaceans and marine mammals, making it one of the most diverse marine ecosystems in the Baja California Peninsula.

Duration: 8 Hours

Price: $595 USD per person, minimum of 2 people

Includes: Private transportation, snorkeling equipment, private guide, private boat, Cabo Pulmo National Park entrance fee, beverages, refreshments and lunch.

GLAMPING

The Dos Arroyos Campsite is a perfect venue for a night in the outdoors. A picturesque setting, stunning nature, dinner under the stars and Cabo's perfect weather to make this an unforgettable adventure.

Duration: Pick up at 5:30 PM and drop off next day at 11:00 AM

Price: $395 USD per person

Includes: Transportation, camping attendant, amenities and all campsite activities. Selection of food and beverages will be charged upon consumption.

The 2 Arroyos Trail System is a 10-mile single-track network optimized for mountain biking in partnership with Scott Bikes. This eco-adventure combines connectivity among all trails amidst desert canyons, cliffs and riverbeds. The mountain bike skill development course is perfect for beginner, intermediate and advanced riders who can also improve their ability levels on the more challenging trails.

Duration: 80 minutes

Price: $150 USD per person

Includes: Transportation, protective gear (helmet, gloves), water, energy bars and guide.

Experience Baja's unique native flora while taking in the astonishing views of the dramatic surrounding desert landscape.
